

Lieutenant Shirley Voisin began her professional career serving our county with the United States Navy. Primarily based out of Adak Alaska, her time of service spanned from 1973 through 1975.

Her career later took her to San Jacinto College District in Pasadena, TX where she served in the campus police patrol division. Throughout her tenure, from 1982 to 1991, she investigated accidents, theft and conducted background investigations, as well as trained incoming officers.

In 1991, Lieutenant Voisin made a lateral transfer to Harris County Sheriff's Department. During her time with the Sheriff's Office, she processed inmates in and out of custody, escorted inmates to and from various agency facilities, provided courtroom security and was active participant in Law Enforcement Against Delinquents Mentoring (LEAD) program.

In 2006, Lieutenant Voisin served her country again through a Department of defense contract with DynCorp. As an International Police Advisor/Trainer, she was based in Iraq, where she trained Iraqi police forces along with US military staff. Her areas of focus in the region included community policing training, mentoring, training in domestic violence, and developing a training infrastructure used by Iraqi forces.

In 2008, her teaching skills brought her back stateside to Pasadena ISD. Her work challenged her to adapt to various learning styles exhibited by her students and accommodating students with special needs. She implanted strategies, activities, and techniques for promoting quality work output from her students academically and socially.

In 2011, Lieutenant joined the Houston Community College Police department. As a Sergeant, she made campus visits during every shift of duty. Regularly inspected all equipment used by officers. Supported officers by making scenes where backup was requested and reviewed all daily activity reports as well as all incidents reports.

Today she serves the Harris County Precinct 6 Constable's Office as the Patrol Operations Lieutenant.
